NEWS & DOCUMENTARY EMMY® AWARDS ANNOUNCED

NBC's Andrea Mitchell to be honored with Lifetime Achievement Award

September 24th Award Presentation at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall in NYC

New York, N.Y. – July 25, 2019 (revised 9.09.19) – Nominations for the 40th Annual News and Documentary Emmy® Awards were announced today by The National Academy of Television Arts & Sciences (NATAS). The News & Documentary Emmy Awards will be presented on Tuesday, September 24th, 2019, at a ceremony at Lincoln Center's Alice Tully Hall in New York City. The event will be attended by more than 1,000 television and news media industry executives, news and documentary producers and journalists.

“The clear, transparent, and factual reporting provided by these journalists and documentarians is paramount to keeping our nation and its citizens informed,” said Adam Sharp, President & CEO, NATAS. “Even while under attack, truth and the hard-fought pursuit of it must remain cherished, honored, and defended. These talented nominees represent true excellence in this mission and in our industry.”

In addition to celebrating this year's nominees in forty-nine categories, the National Academy is proud to honor Andrea Mitchell, NBC News' chief foreign affairs correspondent and host of MSNBC's “Andrea Mitchell Reports,” with the Academy's Lifetime Achievement Award for her groundbreaking 50-year career covering domestic and international affairs.

The 40th Annual News & Documentary Emmy® Awards honors programming distributed during the calendar year 2018.

The list of nominees is also available on the National Television Academy's website: www.emmyonline.tv
